Collect empty cartons

before the sorting. Mrs

Shaw kindly learnt

same last year.

Committee members to mark together all articles ~~from~~ for sale at each depot in turn.

Prices to be attached.

Sorting Mon. 20th. Oct. 9.30 a.m.

All articles to be marked with a ticket and classified into heaps.

Each pile to be placed in a carton and labelled such as "Ladies Underwear"

Any articles which go in pairs to be tied together

Ask Mothers Club for names of those able to lend cars.

Get a Policeman for Sale

Explain procedure to helpers clearly before door opens.

The buyer presents card when a sale is made and the name of the article and its price are written clearly on the card keeping shilling and pence in their right column straight.

Cards are to be made of wheatbix cartons and measure about 8" x 4". Cards must be stamped with Rindergarten stamp.

Six checkers to work in pairs are really necessary - one checks the articles with the card while the other tots up the amount.

Lots of newspapers and string must be sent with the lorry

The buyer then after the purchase passes on to the Cashier, presents his or her card and pays his a/c.

The Sale.

1 p.m. 24th. Oct. Friday

Key is procurable at 9 a.m.
from the vicarage.

Need about 35 helpers

Lorry has kindly been promised by Mrs. P. Shaw with 1 boy and 1 man.

All helpers must bring pencil attached to a string to be worn around the waist.

Scissors also are very helpful

Have a supply of pins and price tickets for last minute additions

Money tells with round holders for change are much better than cash boxes for giving quick change. Mrs. Shaw has kindly promised to lend us these.

Tea for helpers

2 qts. milk

6/- sandwiches

Mrs. Cole will supply tea

Mrs. Shaw " " sugar

Mrs. Wiseman " " sugar

Mrs. Peritt will order
milk & sand.
